

Professional Reflection, Enquiry & Learning – inspired by Reggio Emilia

Trainer—Baljit Gill

Professional Development Day

Inspired by the schools of Reggio Emilia and combined with current theories and early childhood practices, we would like to invite you to book onto a professional development day at Imagine : A day of Professional Reflection, Enquiry and Learning.

The day will consist of mini workshops, networking and lots of professional dialogue / exchange of information and ideas, thoughts and experiences

Key Areas of Focus:

- Environments and Spaces
- Resources and Materials
- Loose Parts and Raw Materials

Participants will be able to visit our nursery and our additional learning spaces for some great ideas and ways to enhance or transform your learning environments, resources/ materials and practice.
